ORDER STRIKING HANDWRITTEN PLEADING TITLED “MOTION FOR HEARING”

The Court has reviewed a handwritten pleading titled “Motion for Hearing” filed on May 31, 2022 in this adversary proceeding (“Pleading”)(dkt# 6). The Pleading appears to be signed by Keyvan Parsa with an illegible date. The Court finds that the Pleading should be stricken and dismissed for the following reasons.

The Pleading is handwritten and only partly legible. The Pleading appears to state that “I’m unable to retain counsel for myself or the entity that I have control,” and that “I received a leaked email for Brad W. Odell office;" the rest of the Pleading is illegible and non-sensical.

Although the title of the Pleading is "Motion for Hearing," the Pleading does not state what a hearing is requested on or what relief would be sought at any such hearing.

The Pleading also does not comply with Rule 9013 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure ("Bankruptcy Rules"), as the Pleading does not set forth with particularity the grounds for the motion or the relief sought by the motion. See a/so Local Bankruptcy Rules 7007 and 9013.

The Pleading does not include a certificate of service as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013(c), (d)(2). No proposed form of order was submitted with the Pleading as required by Local Bankruptcy Rules 7007 and 9013(b). The Pleading does not contain the mailing address of the signer as required by Bankruptcy Rule 9011(a) and Local Bankruptcy Rule 9004.

One of the named Defendants in this adversary proceeding is a corporate entity (Techrover, Inc.). A corporation can appear in federal court only through a licensed attorney. See e.g., 28 U.S.C. §1654; Rowland v. California Men's Colony, 506 U.S. 194, 202 (1993). It appears that the Pleading was not signed by a licensed attorney.

Any pleading that does not comply with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and Local Bankruptcy Rules may be dismissed by the Court on its own Motion. See Local Bankruptcy Rule 9004(d).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The pleading titled "Motion for Hearing" filed in this adversary proceeding on May 31, 2022 ("Pleading")(dkt# 6) is hereby DISMISSED and STRICKEN.

2. Any future pleading filed by Keyvan Parsa in this adversary proceeding must comply with the terms of this Order, or the pleading may be stricken and dismissed by the Court without further notice.

3. The Clerk shall cause a copy of this Order to be sent to Keyvan Parsa, 810 N. Kansas Street, El Paso, Texas 79902.
